T3-01	 — A WARM WELCOME — Wherever you find yourself, you are welcome here. Emmanuel is a diverse, inclusive church in the liberal catholic tradition — a vibrant part of North London. Together, we are learning to be a community of faith shaped by the celebration of the Eucharist, a regular pattern of prayer and a vocation to share the all-encompassing love of God with the parish we serve. T3-17	The Nazareth Chapel In 2017 the former vicar's study — once a vestry in the original building — was converted into a daily prayer chapel called the Nazareth Chapel. It houses an image of Our Lady of Walsingham, a copy of that in the Holy House at Walsingham, where a lamp burns for Emmanuel Church and School. It is a place of stillness and quiet at the heart of West Hampstead, used for the Daily Offices and midweek Eucharist. The Lady Chapel In 2024 the vestry was restored to its original state as a side chapel to the south of the High Altar. The vestry was returned to its former location replacing what had been the vicar's study and then the Nazareth Chapel. The Lady Chapel houses the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary, donated by the sisters of Edgware Abbey in 2011, along with other images and statues of our Lady. The chapel is open all day every day and offers a place for silent prayer and contemplation.	Changed `history.njk`	link

T3-53	Originally from Birmingham, Mthr Clemency discerned her call to ordained ministry while at university. She began her ministry in West Hampstead in May 2026, with a particular responsibility for the life and ministry of St Cuthbert's Church, alongside a focus on developing passion for social justice and community outreach across our two churches. Mthr Clemency is currently training as a spiritual director in the Ignatian tradition and has a particular love for contemplative prayer. Outside of ministry, she enjoys reading good books and watching bad television, and can usually be drawn into a conversation about tennis or hymns.	✔ Changed Sanity person (Clemency)	link
T3-54	St Cuthbert's St Cuthbert's is a church entering an exciting new chapter. After a period where regular worship was paused, we are preparing to re-root ourselves in regular prayer and worship. Like Emmanuel, we seek to make the Eucharist at the heart of everything we do: a shared meal which reflects our shared lives together. We hope for services at St Cuthbert's to take a more informal shape, bringing together ancient traditions of worship with a warm and accessible atmosphere. Alongside this, St Cuthbert's has become a thriving centre of community life. A growing range of projects and events make the church building a place of welcome throughout the week, including Saturday's FoodCycle community lunches (the largest in London!), our local Scouts group, a repair café, and other social outreach initiatives. T2-59	If you'd like to help us, please talk to one of the clergy or Church Wardens, or email us at info@emmanuelnw6.com. Doesn't Blaise have an email for volunteering or am I making things up?	T2-only — needs reviewNo clear T3 equivalent; not auto-merged	—
T2-60	A COMMON QUESTION — Can I get married at Emmanuel? + Make it more obvious that you can actually click on the plus cuz I thought it was a typo haha and fix colouring	T2-only — needs reviewNo clear T3 equivalent; not auto-merged	—
T2-61	 I would remove "the hope we hold"	T2-only — needs reviewNo clear T3 equivalent; not auto-merged	—
T2-62	SUNDAY 8:00 Said Eucharist (BCP) Said according to the Book of Common Prayer. This short, 30-minute service offers a quiet, reflective start to the week. SUNDAY 9:15 Joyful Noise Eucharist A lively celebration of the Mass designed for pre-school children and their families. Harin leads our music on the guitar and brings wonderful joy and energy to this service! Joyful Noise does not take place during the school summer holidays. SUNDAY 10:30 Sung Eucharist Our more traditional celebration of the Eucharist with music led by our parish choir. During term time our Children's Church and Youth Church meet during the service. On the first Sunday of the month the whole congregation gathers for All Age Worship, and on the third Sunday our children and youth meet for Forest Church in the garden. Not a fan of the moving when you hover over it, makes it a bit hard to read and makes me dizzy	T2-only — needs reviewNo clear T3 equivalent; not auto-merged	—

T2-63	 Remove the subtitle, it feels a bit silly	 T2-only — needs reviewNo clear T3 equivalent; not auto-merged	—
T2-64	 These are all happening on Sunday for some reason? Maybe include if it's Children & Youth / All Age / Forest Church	 T2-only — needs reviewNo clear T3 equivalent; not auto-merged	—

T2-66	 I think we can remove the other service times because they're not all for kids Also add scouts and youth group?	🔴 T2-only — needs reviewNo clear T3 equivalent; not auto-merged	—
T2-67	 I think (considering we're focussing on children) these two deserve a similar box to Children's and Youth Church. I think it's good we mention our child bishop but it feels a bit useless, @Trin maybe a picture on our board rather than online?	🔴 T2-only — needs reviewNo clear T3 equivalent; not auto-merged	—
T2-68	 Maybe add a picture?	🔴 T2-only — needs reviewNo clear T3 equivalent; not auto-merged	—

T2-69	THROUGHOUT THE YEAR — Seasonal workshops In addition to our regular Sunday offerings, we run a number of seasonal workshops through the year — from our St Nicholas' workshop in Advent right through to Good Friday. These arts and crafts workshops are open to children of all ages. They're great fun, and always include a suitable amount of messy craft! Maybe include a link to the events page here And maybe info about children's choir and the youth club?	🛑 T2-only — needs reviewNo clear T3 equivalent; not auto-merged	—
T2-70	 All our children and youth church leaders are DBS-checked volunteers, some of whom have professional backgrounds in education or childcare. Safeguarding the care of children and vulnerable people is taken very seriously at Emmanuel. Deserves to be bigger!!	🛑 T2-only — needs reviewNo clear T3 equivalent; not auto-merged	—
T2-71	THOSE WHO LEAD OUR MUSIC —  DIRECTOR OF MUSIC Will Rose Will studied Music at Queens' College, Cambridge, where he was a Choral Scholar. At university he won several prestigious conducting prizes and conducted every major instrumental ensemble across the University. Away from Emmanuel, Will is a music teacher at a top London secondary school.  ORGANIST Joseph Verdin On Sundays the choir is joined by Joseph Verdin, who held multiple Organ Scholarships at Durham University and has accompanied guest services at St Paul's Cathedral, St George's Chapel, Windsor, and York Minster. I think Joe should move to the "Our Team" page and this could maybe be a link? Feels silly to have them double	🛑 T2-only — needs reviewNo clear T3 equivalent; not auto-merged	—
